Letter of Invitation (17 Sep 2018)
2018 New Zealand National Kung-Fu Wushu Championships
[Early-Bird Registration is Wed 31 Oct and Final Registration is Wed 7 Nov]

To Whom It May Concern

The NZ Kung-Fu Wushu Federation Incorporated is an Associate Member of the NZ Olympic Committee; a listed National Sport Organisation (NSO) under Sport NZ; NZ's Official Representative to the International and Oceania Wushu Federations; and since 1990 the peak body for the promotion and development of traditional and modern Chinese martial arts in NZ.

We are about to stage our National Kung-Fu Wushu Championships on 17 November 2018 at Auckland Netball Centre, 7 Allison Ferguson Drive, St Johns, Auckland. This Championship is the pinnacle Chinese Martial Arts event in New Zealand and helps promote a greater public understanding and awareness of 'Wushu' (Taolu-Forms) and (Sanda-Fighting) as a unique and independent sport, and to learn new skills and gain valuable technical experience.

We welcome all Chinese Gung-Fu, Wushu and Tai Chi schools, clubs and groups, as well as all Fight clubs and disciplines including Karate, Kickboxing, Mixed Martial Arts, Muay Thai etc., to compete (using Sanda rules) in this official New Zealand National Championship.

For further information on the Championships or to register, please visit the Federation's website www.wushu.org.nz or email taolu.enq@wushu.org.nz or sanda.enq@wushu.org.nz.

Kind regards

Glen Keith 格兰 凯思
President NZ Kung-Fu Wushu Federation Inc.
